START OF FALLOUT JOURNEY

This map is based on a report by the U.S. Weather Bureau. It shows the path of the massive radioactive fallout cloud from the Soviet's huge H-test this week. Cloud is 100 to 150 miles wide and travels at a speed of 80 mph.

Huge Fallout Cloud Bound For Canada

Committee Overrules Opposition By Soviet

WASHINGTON (AP) — The fallout cloud of radiation loosed by Russia's huge H-bomb blast in the Soviet Arctic Monday rolled steadily across the North Pacific today toward an area south of the Aleutian islands.

"We don't know yet whether it will move north into Alaska, or straight ahead over Canada, or the northern United States," said Dr. Lester Machta, a United States weather bureau fallout specialist.

Machta said the cloud appeared to be passing south of the Kamchatka Peninsula, and its course will depend upon wind systems.

"We think the cloud is mainly north of Japan, between Japan and Kamchatka," he added.

The 700-mile gap between Hokkaido, northernmost island of Japan, and Kamchatka is dotted by the Kurile Islands, which lie directly under the fall-out cloud.

The main part of the cloud is estimated to be about 100 miles wide, moving generally eastward at an altitude of about 30,000 feet.

In the high-velocity winds of the jet stream the cloud of radioactive debris from Monday's huge blast in the Arctic is advancing at about 80 miles an hour.

It contains perhaps only a fraction of one per cent of the nuclear ashes released by the explosion. Most of the radiation is much higher in the stratosphere, and will not return to earth until next spring.

Delegates Seek Quick Move On Anti-Test Appeal By UN

UNITED NATIONS (CP) — stormy day of Soviet opposition. Delegates pressed today for quick General Assembly action on a Canadian-led appeal to Russia to refrain from exploding a 50-megaton hydrogen bomb.

The UN political committee Wednesday night approved the appeal by a thumping 75-10 margin.

Canada was one of the original sponsors of the appeal which branched into an eight-country resolution. Denmark, another sponsor, asked that the General Assembly give top priority to the resolution which cleared the committee after a

Only the nine-country Soviet bloc and Cuba voted against the appeal. Mali abstained and 15 nations—100 of them from Africa—were absent when the balloting took place. India was one of the absent countries.

As support for the resolution mounted, Russia and its allies finally abandoned attempts to stall off the committee vote. But Soviet delegate Senyov K. Tsarapkin indicated the Kremlin would reject the appeal, asserting manoeuvres by the NATO powers would not deter Russia from perfecting its defenses.

Acting Prime Minister Grees said today the government is still worried about the future threat of radioactive fallout, despite a statement by a leading government scientist that fallout now is not critical.

The external affairs minister was asked about a statement by Dr. A. H. Zimmerman, chairman of the defence research board, who said Wednesday that while the seriousness of fallout cannot be disregarded, there is as yet no real cause for worry in Canada.

Dr. Ralph E. Lapp, a United States nuclear scientist who helped develop the first atom bomb, dismissed an "alarming" Wednesday Russian claim that it has developed a defence against intercontinental ballistic missiles.

Dr. Amerleio Cruz, Cuban ambassador to Canada, said in Vancouver Wednesday he is plotting a second invasion of his country.

Louise Leforte, convicted of murder in the beating death of a two-year-old girl at Prince Rupert earlier this year, will be hanged Nov. 14, at Vancouver.

Stuart Finlay-Bisset, the Rhodesian who punched G. Mennen Williams, U.S. affairs, at Lusaka airport last August, has received about $5,000 in gifts mainly from Americans, his wife said Wednesday.

NEWCASTLE, England (Reuters) — Lord Fisher of Lambeth, the former Anglican primate, said today the hostile Iron Curtain between the Roman Catholic and Anglican churches had gone.

DIEF'S DELAY

RCAF 'Inept' Accusation Brings Rebuttal In House

OTTAWA (CP) — A Progressive Conservative MP's contention that the RCAF was inept and "a disgrace to the nation" Wednesday during a flight carrying Prime Minister Diefenbaker drew indignant replies to day from two ministers.

William Payne, member for Coast-Capilano, had called in a telegram to Defence Minister Harkness for "immediate and severe action" because the RCAF Comet carrying Mr. Diefenbaker was forced back to Vancouver shortly after taking off en route to Tokyo. "Mechanical failure is always possible and happens from time to time," Mr. Harkness said in a statement today. "The RCAF safety record is exceptionally good."

"When a failure was discovered in the retraction gear of the Comet... the pilot wisely they did the right thing," Mr. Harkness said it meant a postponement of only one function in the prime minister's state visit to Japan—a 20-minute reception.

External Affairs Minister Green told reporters before entering cabinet that the RCAF had acted properly.

"There was no accident and the Comet... the pilot wisely they did the right thing," Mr. Harkness said it meant a postponement of only one function in the prime minister's state visit to Japan—a 20-minute reception.

US Troops In E. Berlin For Second Day In Row

BERLIN (AP)—United States troops moved across the border into East Berlin for the second straight day today to reassert the right of the Western allies to move unimpeded through this divided city.

The East German police then closed the Friedrichstrasse crossing, but reopened it when calm was restored. U.S. tanks provided a backdrop for the convoy across the dividing line but were withdrawn later.

The situation flared up and died down within three-quarters of an hour.

The Friedrichstrasse crossing is the only one between East and West Berlin that is left for the use of foreigners wishing to enter East Berlin from West Berlin.

The day's main incident at the checkpoint began when an American, driving a sedan with two passengers, sought admittance to East Berlin. The East German police refused to admit him unless he identified himself, and he declined to do that.

When the driver came back three U.S. jeeps, carrying American military policemen with bayonets fixed, joined him for another try.

The East German police stood aside to let the military group and the sedan go by.

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—The Syrian revolt has touched off a wave of arrests and reorganization in Egypt that diplomatic sources say is more widespread than President Nasser has admitted publicly.

Nasser's government has admitted the arrest of 40 civilians and confiscation of property of 167 more.

Damascus newspapers reported property was seized from more than 1,000 persons, most of them Syrians and Lebanese.

And qualified informants say that at least 16 air force officers have been confined and possibly 100 army officers have been arrested or dismissed.

The army officers are mainly relatives of close allies of the wealthy civilians picked up Oct. 17.

Spaceman Grows Fat

MOSCOW (AP)—Moscow papers today published photographs of space man Yuri Gagarin showing he has gained at least 15 pounds and developed a double chin since he came back from orbit.

The pictures were taken Wednesday when the cosmonaut showed up for the first time at the congress of the Communist party to which he is a delegate.

Gagarin had been laid up with an unspecified illness for more than two weeks.

PROPHET NOW HAS A RED FACE

TORONTO (CP)—The prediction wasn't far off—just 343 votes, in fact—but the embarrassment is just as acute for the Halton County Progressive Conservative Association.

The association has sent out tickets to an annual dinner slated for Nov. 21.

Printing on the tickets informs their holders: "Speaker: Hon. Keio Roberts, prime minister of Ontario."

The association had intended to invite the premier-elect, but no one seems to know who did the predicting.

Mr. Roberts placed second among the seven candidates, behind Education Minister John Roberts.

31 Killed In Mud Slide

TOKYO (AP)—A muddy landslide buried a one-coach electric passenger train in southern Japan today and reports from the scene said 31 persons had been killed and 35 injured.

Police said the avalanche took place between Oita city and the resort city of Heppu, where it has been raining heavily for more than 24 hours.

Rescue workers worked furiously to recover the injured among the 60 passengers aboard.

Challenge To Pravda On H-Tests

NEW YORK (AP)—The editor of the New York Post challenged the editor of the Russian newspaper Pravda Tuesday to print the American's ideas about the Soviet Union's latest atomic explosion.

James A. Wechsler, the New York editor, offered in return to "make available the same amount of space to you for any rejoinder you are to make."

The Soviet Communist party newspaper earlier had accepted Wechsler's challenge to publish the New York's views on President Kennedy. In that article, Wechsler had said the president had no illusion that any nation could win an atomic war but that Kennedy would not allow the United States to accept defeat.

In the article he offered Tuesday, Wechsler said that "no 'superbomb' can change the fundamental fact of our time—that no nation can hope to achieve real 'victory' in an atomic war."

He also wrote that "Mr. Khrushchev (the Soviet premier) once said that those who are first to violate the nuclear test ban 'will cover themselves with shame, they will be branded by all the peoples of the world.'"

Democrats 'Confusing' To Ike

NEW YORK (AP)—Former president Eisenhower says the Kennedy administration is "confusing me and all my friends."

In one of his sharpest attacks on the Democratic administration, Eisenhower Tuesday night said federal fiscal policies are "shrinking dollars." He called the Peace Corps a "juvenile experiment."

BACKACHE May be Warning

Backache is often caused by lazy kidney action. When kidneys get out of order, excess acids and wastes remain in the system. Then backache, disturbed rest or that tired-out heavy-headed feeling may soon follow. That's the time to take Dodd's Kidney Pills. Dodd's stimulate the kidneys to normal action. Then you feel better—sleep better—work better. Get Dodd's Kidney Pills now.

Needles Belt May Upset Canada's Space Program

PENTICTON (CP)—Scientists at an astrophysical observatory near here fear that the United States' attempt to girdle the globe with a band of copper needles will hamper Canada's space research program.

"This experiment has caused us no trouble yet," says Dr. John L. Locke, officer in charge of the Dominion Radio Astrophysical Observatory.

"But we are deeply concerned over what will come later."

He said scientists are worried because the first needle satellite will be followed by others.

Dr. Locke said when the needle content of the atmosphere around the earth increases, there will be reflected interference, static reflected from the earth.

So far, he said, there had been no difficulty because the astrophysical equipment operates on a different frequency than the needle satellites.

But astrophysical techniques are changing and advancing so rapidly that the needles in the atmosphere today could cause trouble to new more sensitive apparatus of the future.

Passenger Jets Change Agreed On 'Malfunctions'

WASHINGTON (CP)—The U.S. Federal Aviation Agency and Douglas Aircraft, manufacturer of the DC-8s, have agreed to sweeping changes in the jet passenger planes following what FAA chief Najeeb Halaby called a series of malfunctions.

Halaby had disclosed this to a symposium of the Society of Experimental Test Pilots in Los Angeles last month and Douglas officials said all FAA-recommended changes would be made by the airlines' repair facilities.

Halaby added that the planes would not be grounded while the changes were made unless something unforeseen occurred. The changes to be incorporated are:

1. Hydraulic reserve capacity will be increased to provide stepped up braking capacity.

ON STAGE

WITH
Spec Tator

AFTER A PERIOD of "not knowing what to do," which is that state of mind a director gets into when casting and just prior to making his decisions, Sam Payne announced the members of KLT who will play in Pione.

Bob Brand, well-known for his work in Kelowna and in a number of local productions including last year's "Shogun 17," will play the male lead "Hal Carter".

Hal Carter is a modern vagabond, on the road with his hat and his guitar, a romantic figure, Hal Carter has a Kansas town like the Second Coming with variations.

To smalltown Madge Owens, "the pretty one," but the not-too-bright one, Hal is an answer to a candy-store clerk's dreams. The two gnomes of desire and sympathy combine in Hal's favor, and Madge succumbs partly to Hal and partly to her "True Romance" type dreams.

It's a William Inge character ultra - believable, and Madge will be played by Joyce Fraser, a newcomer to Kelowna. She has worked with Ottawa Little Theatre, and since with a Bertha group.

Millie, a 16-year-old hoydenish creature who has just felt the urge, somewhat tentatively, to be desired and feminine. She is Madge's sister, and might be called a contract, being forth instead of a "doll".

Heather Pittenburgh, a Kelowna High School student, will play Millie with the tender frustrations.

Bomber Gutzel, paperboy with ambitions to be a tough-guy and a crush on sexy Madge, is thwarted by tomboyish Millie to some degree, and will be played by Phil Pugliese, Rosemary, the school teacher boarder, makes one last attempt to bag a man as he feels the creeping horror of a lonely old age coming on, and bags ineffectual Howard, a small-town businessman who will always be that.

Mary Sandin will be Rosemary and Don Haines, Howard. Una Hughes will play Flo Owens, mother to Madge and Millie, who sees in Madge and Hal a reincarnation of her own failure in life but is helpless to stop it.

Alan, Madge's boyfriend, son of the town's Mayor, will be played by Bob White. Two old-nait schoolteachers Irma Kronk and Christine Schoenwelder will be played by Maria Powell and Edith Walker. Miss Nancy Gale will play Mrs. Potts, a pleasant old lady who takes Hal to her heart and thinks him a "nice boy."

RUTLAND BAND SET FOR AUCTION

EXTENSION DELAY

KAMLOOPS (CP) — An official of the Royal Inland Hospital at Kamloops claims delay in construction of a hospital addition has been caused by lack of approval from Victoria, Donald R. Andrews, chairman of the hospital board, said Tuesday the hospital insurance commission has failed to approve the operating budget of the new extension.

It was bought out of the proceeds of the Midway operated by the Kinsmen during the Regatta. Hospital officials said that it represents a valuable addition to hospital equipment, and helps meet the need created by the ever-growing demands on the hospital's operating suite.

Present at the handing over ceremony were Paul Ponich, Kinsmen Club president; Andy Sperle, vice-president and Al Ribelin; C. A. Lipsett, hospital trustee; Dr. J. B. Moir, representing the hospital medical staff; Miss C. C. Sinclair, director of nursing; Mrs. D. Keating, assistant director of nursing, and Miss J. McLeod, operating room supervisor.

Mr. McCleave, speaker to the Kelowna Canadian Club Wednesday night, chats with club members R. E. and Mrs. Bealsto before the meeting. Mr. McCleave, member of parliament for Halifax, spoke on the subject of reforming Canada's divorce laws and suggested solution for the problems which now exist.

CHEST DRIVE MANAGER SAYS TOTAL MAY BE $1,500 SHORT

John Dyck, campaign manager for the Kelowna and District Community Chest, predicted today that the chest would come within $1,500 of its $30,350 objective.

"We have received some monies, partial or complete returns, from most zones," he said.

Mr. Dyck added that in three zones, no money had yet been forthcoming. However, returns from those zones should be in soon. They were delayed in their canvasses because of illness among the volunteer canvass staff.

To date Kelowna has collected over 50 percent of its objective, about $17,000 now being on hand.

Continued response of the public to the Community Chest drive is anticipated, and, if this response is forthcoming, chances are the drive will reach its objective.

R. G. Whillis Installed As 38th Gyro President

R. G. Jim Whillis was installed as the 38th president of the Kelowna Gyro Club at the Aquatic on Tuesday evening.

He succeeds M. Meikle. The installation ceremonies were conducted by the governor of Gyros District 4, Clarry Freeth of Yakima.

Rutland Band To Sponsor Auction

The annual giant auction sale, sponsored by the Rutland High School Parents' Band Association, will take place on Saturday, Oct. 28 at Rutland corner, adjacent to the Rutland Fire Hall.

The auction, proceeds of which will go towards the High School Band Association drive for new instruments and additional musical library, will get underway at 1 p.m.

Rutland High School band, a 35-member group under the direction of Tom Austen, is part of the overall 74-member band which includes Rutland High and George Elliott High students.

MUSIC TOO

During the auction the Rutland High group will play musical selections for the entertainment of the audience. The largest attendance on record for the annual event, is expected this year.

Band members will be dressed in "country style" costumes for the occasion.

Support for the development of the young musicians, eager to raise money for their musical education with the help of their parents, is closely linked with public support which is all they are asking at this time.

WINFIELD

Following the ceremony, Campanian Mrs. H. Redecapp was presented with a Foresters Ring by District Deputy A. Rapier for her fine efforts in building up Court Winfield.

The meeting was then adjourned and games were played and other entertainment enjoyed.

National Officer To Attend JC Executive Meet

(Staff — National Junior Chamber of Commerce vice-president, Wilfred Dowd of Burnaby will attend the provincial JC board meeting in the city Saturday and Sunday.

Also attending will be provincial president, Edward Dickens, of Kelowna.

About 60 members of JC executive from throughout B.C. are expected to come to Vernon for the affair.

VISITING GUEST SPEAKER

Robert J. McCleave, speaker to the Kelowna Canadian Club Wednesday night, chats with club members R. E. and

Mrs. Bealsto before the meeting. Mr. McCleave, member of parliament for Halifax, spoke on the subject of reforming Canada's divorce laws and suggested solution for the problems which now exist.

CANADIAN CLUB TOLD

Incompatibility Blamed In Divorce

An examination of some of the causes behind Canada's divorce laws was given in an address to the Kelowna Canadian Club last night by Robert J. McCleave, member of parliament for Halifax.

"In any discussion of divorce," he said, "inevitably Quebec is mentioned."

"Now in examination of the law of Quebec as regards to divorce, I found that basically, this is their opinion: In the civil law of the province, marriage is regarded as indissoluble, a divorce court were to be set up, then the principle of the indissolubility of marriage would not be a principle at all."

MR. McCLEAVE

Mr. McCleave said that in the world today, Canada was the most backward in regards to its divorce law, ranking among some of the poorer South American countries in this regard. "However," he said, "in waiting so long to reform our laws, we may very well be able to profit from the mistakes of other countries in this regard."

In looking at reform of divorce laws, Mr. McCleave said that in examination of 40 cases, he attempted to find out the causes behind them.

Of the 40, he found that financial instability was the cause of 12 of these; this included violence and drinking; well over one third had no idea of the basic things in a marriage and bought such things as a car or a new coat instead of cooking utensils and one fourth of the couples examined were childless.

However, in examining the area of religious differences, he said that this didn't seem to be a cause of split, probably because they had taken this into consideration before they got married. However, what did cause a split was if one member was an active churchgoer and the other wasn't, even if they were both members of the same church.

INCOMPATIBILITY

"All in all," he said, it can be summed up in one word — incompatibility."

Listing solutions which would be needed, he said that any reform should broaden the bases of divorce to include cruelty, desertion, habitual criminality, drug addiction, sexual perversion, or alcoholism.

"However," he emphasized, "in any reform, the law must also set up a firm reconciliation for prime beef procedure, which would include a waiting period. One refinement of such a procedure is what the German courts have recently add: a three-year waiting period with the stipulation that irreparable harm had been done the marriage."

REFORMS TO COME

These reforms will come said the speaker. But first, the government and opposition backbenchers would have to create a climate of public opinion so that a divorce reform bill could pass.

But work on this will take at least ten years.

STOCK SALE

KAMLOOPS (CP) — A total of 22 r-II beef clubs and individual contributors will participate in a Nov. 13-15 fat stock show and sale here. Officials say the sale likely will top last year when buyers paid $81.515

Council's Bike - Lights Move Not Strong Enough

City council did not take a strong enough stand on Monday night when they merely decided that bicycle riders without lights would be only given "a stern warning." Council, if its desire is to protect bicycle riders from injury or death, should have instituted a check-up campaign beyond warnings.

After dark, these days there is a great deal of traffic on the streets. Darkness comes much earlier and there are many bicycle riders as the youngsters are still on the streets. Heavily overcast or rainy nights add to the poor visibility.

The law stipulates that a bicycle after dark must carry lights. In this city the law is observed more in the breaking than in the keeping. Monday night one alderman stated he had counted eleven out of twelve bikes without lights. He doubtless was correct.

The fault, of course, lies more with the parents of the youngsters than with the kids themselves. After all, it is the parents' duty to insist that their children do not use their bikes after dark without lights. It seems that few parents bother to check on their youngsters in this matter.

Nor does the fault rest alone with the children. Adults can be seen almost any evening riding bikes without lights. Youngsters can be forgiven for carelessness or foolhardiness but it is difficult to understand why an adult would invite an accident by riding on dark streets without lights. Yet they do.

And let there be an accident. Let a youngster be struck by a car. The driver, regardless of the facts, in the eyes of the public would be to blame immediately. And the parents who allowed their youngster to ride after dark without lights would inevitably blame the car driver, rather than placing the blame right where it belongs, on themselves.

The lights-on-bicycle law was designed to prevent accidents. But it cannot unless it is enforced. It can only be enforced in two ways. The first is by the parents who must be strict and adamant about their youngsters riding without lights after dark. The second way is by a definite crackdown by the police.

The city authorities, goodness knows, are tough enough about illegal left turns, yet this is actually a much lesser offense than riding a bike without lights. When the former regulation is broken, property damage may result, but seldom injury. However, with the latter, when a car and a bicycle make contact, the chances of injury to the bicycle rider are very great indeed. Severe injuries.

As was obvious at Monday night's council meeting, it is obvious the city council is concerned about the matter. However, it does seem to us that the concern would have been better shown had it, rather than commencing a "stern warning" campaign, issued immediate instructions to the police to give tickets and prosecute all bicycle riders found after dark without lights. This should have been done in the interests of the bicycle riders themselves, to say nothing of the other people using the streets and highways.

A few prosecutions would drive home to the reluctant parents that, unless they wish to pay a fine, they must insist that the bicycles of their children be equipped with lights—and those lights used.

Politicians and Pickets

In Toronto, the Royal York Hotel has been picketed by strikers since last April. The hotel has continued to operate very efficiently and many of the strikers have gone back to work. However, the pickets still remain, and a number of Ontario public men have refused to cross the picket line and enter the hotel.

The reason these men, including Premier Leslie M. Frost, have followed this practice, is that they do not want to take sides in the dispute. The idea was perhaps most clearly expressed by Ontario Liberal Leader John Wintermeyer:

"I feel I should not cross a picket line," Mr. Wintermeyer said. "In all management-labor disputes politicians should be scrupulous about these things and not lend themselves to one side or the other so a settlement can be reached as quickly as possible."

It seems to this newspaper that Mr. Wintermeyer would have been more honest had he said he did not want to cross the picket lines for fear of antagonizing labor votes.

Recently there was a good example of what the Frost-Wintermeyer conception of "impartiality" can lead to. The Empire Club, which regularly holds its meetings in the Royal York, was scheduled to have Premier Frost as its guest speaker. Since Mr. Frost would not cross the picket line, the meeting was transferred to another hotel. Next month another meeting at which Prime Minister Diefenbaker is to be guest, may also have to be transferred since Mr. Diefenbaker is rumored to take the same attitude as Mr. Frost.

These developments suggest the need for clearer thinking on this whole subject of strikes and picket lines. It seems to this newspaper that when a strike is called and the business premises picketed, three courses are open to every citizen not directly involved in the dispute.

1. He can side with the management by helping them win the strike. For instance, by taking the job of one of the striking workers.

2. He can side with the strikers by refusing to cross the picket line and thus, in effect, join in a boycott of the struck business.

3. He can ignore the picket line and carry on as usual.

The third course is surely the course of true impartiality. It is the one which reasonable men, and especially men in public office, ought to follow. The Ontario politicians, if they desire to be impartial and have the courage, should revise their thinking.

WINTER REST

Kelowna City Park, still a beautiful place to spend a contemplative and self-stock-taking afternoon among the fall leaves and flowers, has donned its winter mood after a hectic summer. Here, the park's fountain, a summer-long centre of beauty and attraction, stands like a winter sentinel, silent and leave-strewn.

INSIDE YOU AND YOURS

The 24-Hour Virus Watch

By BURTON H. FERN, M.D.

Has the germ lost count or is your watch broken?

It's three days since that 24-hour virus struck, and everyone's still suffering from intestinal flu.

You can almost follow the virus through the stomach and intestine.

First, the stomach erupts again and again, even when it's empty.

Soon your tongue is dry and your lips parched. You crave water. But every ounce you swallow bounces back with two or three ounces of secretion. Water actually dehydrates you!

Next, germs pierce the intestinal wall to invade the blood stream. You shake feverishly as temperature skyrocket. Ghostly white, you feel completely pooped.

Later, nausea fades and intestinal activity speeds up. Food and fluid whirl down intestinal waterways, sapping vital nourishment. Roughage and fatty foods whip intestinal rivers into torrents.

Strong adults quickly recover. Let the stomach quiet itself. Then sip cracked ice, juice, pop or clear broth. You'll be eating everything in a day or so.

Infants and oldsters need water, minerals and nourishment. Don't risk your baby's health; call the doctor!

Meanwhile, if upchucking has stopped, you can offer a sterilized formula containing three tablespoons of sugar, and one teaspoon of salt in a quart of water. Older toddlers who object to this taste won't recognize the solution in a sweet gelatin dessert.

Your doctor will gradually promote Baby to boiled skim milk, crackers and cereal until he's back on his regular diet.

WHAT TO TAKE

Tablespoon doses of Kaopectate every few hours bind water that is slowing irritable intestines. Adults are entitled to one teaspoon of paregoric, but Baby gets none without the doctor's orders. Don't forget extra vitamins to make up for those that rush straight through.

So many germs cause intestinal flu that you can't clock the illness. And as resistance drops over the winter, 24-hour viruses grow into 96-hour monsters.

To avoid trouble, watch the patient—not the clock!

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

THANK YOU

Dear Sir:

On behalf of Ogopogo Chapter, Order of Demolay, I would like to thank you, your paper, and especially your reporter, for giving us such wonderful publicity on our installation of October 14. I would especially like to thank the reporter who attended. He gave up his Saturday evening to come and take pictures. We enjoyed very much having him there. He was polite, well-mannered and mixed wonderfully with everybody.

Would you please extend our hearty thanks to your reporter, and again many thanks to you and your newspaper.

Yours truly,

Bruce Brown,
Scribe, Ogopogo Chapter.

HOCKEY COMMENT

Sports Editor,
The Daily Courier.

Re Saturday's comments re Junior Hockey Club. The taxpayers of Kelowna cannot be expected to foot the bills for everyone, it costs money to run the arena. Many men have to be employed. There is usually a large deficit every year for the taxpayers to pay for someone else's sport.

In many countries, namely one, England, in every sporting event players are required to pay a membership fee in order to be a member of the club. And often, no player would be selected to play for the club or team, until he had paid his subscription.

In Canada, players in all sports do not do this but require uniforms, equipment bought for them together with all expenses paid in connection, spoon fed, so to speak.

In Great Britain, fans have to pay in order to watch their village, town or city teams play, as here. By players having to pay a membership fee help to bring revenue to their club or team for expense in running the team. Also by a membership fee player can demand a position on the club or team. It is for the player's own benefit that he plays. They are not just doing it for benefit of townspeople. As far as I am concerned I do not care if there are a hockey team in Kelowna or not. But the taxpayers cannot be expected to pay for someone else's sport, the city has done enough of that in the past for the "Packers."

A COMMENT

The Editor, Kelowna Courier,

Dear Sir:

We have just returned from a weeks visit in the Fraser Valley and saw your news story in which it was stated that George Hembling was totally blind. He had been killed in a car accident near Rosedale.

While Geo. Hembling had poor sight, he was not totally blind. At the time of his death and for the past 15 years he was manager of the Vernon Fruit Union, Feed Dept.

The acquittal of Kilgour, I believe, was due to the fact that the jury was not convinced that he was the driver of the car that killed my son, as he had a complete blackout and did not remember anything about the accident.

Mrs. Hembling has made an almost unbelievable recovery and has started to move about on crutches.

Yours Truly,
O. W. Hembling

OTTAWA REPORT

Air Utility Ping - Pong

By TRUCK NICHOLSON

Transport Minister Leon Balcer has been embarrassed by a cross-fire from a factory desiring orders and a utility desiring customers, and from customers disputing both lobbies which sought comfort and aid from a crown corporation, Trans-Canada Air Lines.

Specifically, a Montreal aircraft manufacturer named Canadair Limited hopes that funds, approved by parliament for the purchase of more aircraft by TCA, would be spent on its own CL-44 freighter-aircraft. At the same time a Quebec air line finds itself in financial difficulties on routes where it had successfully sought a licence to operate, and hopes that those difficulties could be relieved if TCA would quit its partly-competing routes.

This situation has led to the spontaneous eruption of the most widespread, varied and vigorous public protest seen here for a long while. Transport Minister Balcer and Prime Minister Diefenbaker have been deluged by deputations, telegrams and letters, coming from labour unions, the air pilots' association, chambers of commerce, and mayors of communities all along the Quebec north shore of the St. Lawrence River, and the Saguenay region. These varied parties are united in asking two things, respectively. First, that the government please not permit the taxpayers' own airline, TCA, to abandon them and deprive them of its satisfactory service with modern equipment and a safety record unexcelled in Canada; second, that TCA continue to be equipped with the best available aircraft for the job on hand.

POLITICAL OVERTONES

At the same time, political opponents of the government are aware of this situation, and are waiting for the moment when and if the government should advise TCA to quit the north shore run between Quebec City, Chicoutimi and Seven Islands. TCA obtained that routes from Canadian Pacific Airlines, by barter in exchange for the lucrative run to Mexico. "What was the cash equivalent value of the barter?" and "What price did the taxpayers of Canada receive for surrendering that run?" are two questions the political Opposition are waiting to ask the government—if.

The matter of equipping TCA with new planes is an equally tricky problem. It is naturally the policy of the government to "Buy Canadian" whenever possible, to create jobs in Canada and to stimulate the Canadian economy generally. Thus Canadair Ltd. has good grounds for hoping that TCA should buy its CL-44 freighter aircraft, rather than the US-made DC-8Fs which it would prefer to buy. But, and it is a big "but", the CL-44 is a nearly obsolete propeller-driven aircraft; it cruises at 400 miles per hour contrasted to the DC-8F's 595; it has a range of 3,000 miles contrasted to the big jet's 3,800; it can carry a payload of 30 tons of freight, while the DC-8F can carry all this and 111 passengers too. Insuperable is the jet's advantage that it can carry those passengers in addition to, or in place of, freight.

This interesting tea was sponsored by the Soroptimist Club and the proceeds will go towards paying for the tape recorder.

SWINGING PARTNERS

By M. J. I.

Three square dance parties took place in the valley last Saturday. In Armstrong, Joe Card of Armstrong called a Party Nite in the Recreation Hall. In Winfield, Chuck Inglis of Peachland called the dance for the Oyama Twirlers in the Winfield Community Hall. Guest callers on the program were Ev and Ches Larson of Kelowna, George Fyall of Kelowna and Scotty Hitchman of Winfield. Dancers attended from Vernon and the Landing south to Peachland. In Sumnerland, Bob Emerson of Omak called the dance for the Pairs and Squares of Sumnerland. In the Youth Centre Hall, Dancers attended from various valley towns.

The Workshop was opened for the season last Sunday and will meet monthly. Caller-teachers met at 1 p.m. with callers and their wives attending from Kamloops to Oroville. The Okanagan Square Dance Association met at 2 p.m. with a splendid turnout of delegates from all the valley clubs. The Workshop followed the meetings and was attended by many dancers from one end of the valley to the other end. The round of the month chosen is Banjo Waltz, a snappy little waltz shown and taught by Chuck and Muriel Inglis of Peachland. A delicious supper was provided by the Alamos of Pentiction, who hosted the workshop this month and asked Glen Ashcroft of Pentiction to emcee for them.

Beginners' classes are in full swing throughout the entire valley with people discovering what fun it is to square dance. Closing dates for new dancers is rapidly approaching so check your area so you won't miss out on the fun.

Beginners classes commence in Oyama this Saturday, don't forget, and will switch to Thursdays on Nov. 9. This is free bring a beginner nite so everyone is welcome.

This Saturday we again have two Party Nites in the valley and one not too far away. Starting in the northern end: the Kalamalka Squares of Vernon will host their monthly Party Nite in the Scout Hall in Vernon. Don Paul of Trail is the caller for this dance and refreshments will be provided. Peachland will host their first Party Nite of the season on Saturday, Oct. 28 in the Athletic Hall in Peachland. The Totem Twirlers Square Dance Club are the hosts, and Ray Fredrickson of Sumnerland is the emcee. Guest callers are invited to bring their own records and dancers are asked to bring a Sac Lunch.

Farther south in Omak and still on the 28, will be the Crazy Nite Dance. Costumes preferred. Bob Emerson of Omak is the emcee and guest callers are invited to bring their records. Supper will be provided.

Glancing to Sat. Nov. 4 we have notices for two Party Nites in the Valley. Kelowna Wagon Wheelers will host their monthly Party Nite in the Centennial Hall in Kelowna. Joe Card of Armstrong is the emcee and guest callers are invited to bring their records. Dancers are asked to bring a Sac Lunch.

The Peach City Promenaders will host their regular Party Nite on Nov. 4 in the Masonic Hall in Pentiction. Elsie Barritt of Pentiction is the emcee and guest callers are invited to bring their records. Dancers are asked to bring a Sac Lunch. A little farther from home, but a nice drive is the dance in Bridesville, also on the 4th. Fred Proulx of Oliver is the emcee and invites callers to bring their records. Supper will be provided by the Swing All Eighties who are hosting the dance.

'Til next week, Happy Square Dancing!

AROUND TOWN

GYRO INSTALLATION

The Installation Dinner and Dance of the Kelowna Gyro Club which took place in the Aqua Ballroom of the Kelowna Aquatic on Wednesday evening proved to be much more than just an installation of officers for the coming year.

Among the out of town guests attending were the Governor of Gyro District No. 4, Mr. Clarrie Freeth from Yakima, Washington; the president of the Pentiction Gyro Club, Mr. Bill Fraser and Mrs. Fraser; the newly installed Vernon president Mr. Larry White and Mrs. White; and the president of the Osoyoos Gyro Club, Mr. Les Charlish and Mrs. Charlish.

Other guests invited to the installation were Mr. Peter Ritchie, president of the Kelowna Rotary Club and Mrs. Ritchie; Mr. Paul Ponich, president of the Kinsman Club, and Mrs. Ponich; Mr. Alan Mitchell, president of the Lions Club, and Mrs. Mitchell; and Mr. Bill Hillier, president of the Kelowna Kiwanis Club.

Preceding the dinner and dance held in the Aqua ballroom Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Meikle (quintained the out of town guests and the club executive and the invited guests at their home on Vimy Ave., and after the dance a very enjoyable evening was pleasantly climaxed by a late party at the home of the newly installed president, Mr. R. G. (Jim) Whillis and Mrs. Whillis.

The new slate of officers installed during the evening were: President, Mr. R. J. Whillis; vice-president, Mr. Richard Stewart Jr.; secretary, Mr. R. M. Baker; treasurer, Mr. James Stewart; directors, Mr. Douglas Montiel, Mr. Alan Anderson, Mr. George Braginetz, and Mr. Robert Lennie. Mr. Maurice Meikle is the past-president of the Kelowna Gyro Club.

HORTICULTURAL CONVENTION

The Kelowna and District Garden Club is hosting an Okanagan Horticultural Societies Convention on Saturday, Oct. 28 at the Centennial Hall.

In an endeavour to stimulate interest in the activities of these clubs, exchange ideas with other Valley Centres, and renew acquaintance with members of other groups visited during the year the Kelowna Club is sponsoring an afternoon program which will commence with a welcome to Kelowna from Mayor Parkinson at 1:30 p.m. and continue till 5 p.m.

During the evening after half an hour business session a collection of slides entitled "Around the Year in the Okanagan" will be shown by Mrs. E. Worman. Guest speaker Mr. M. King, will speak on "New Varieties of Vegetables and there will be a floral display of house plants.

GLENMORE BOWLING

In addition to bowling announcements already made, Glenmore reports that a second league is being formed which will commence on Nov. 10. Play will take place every second Friday, and those wishing to join including members of the first league, are asked to contact Mrs. Frank Brown.

INTERESTING GUEST SPEAKER

Mrs. Gordon Hitchcock of Vancouver, field secretary of the WCTU of B.C. was the guest speaker at the Okanagan Academy Student's Assembly Hour. She was accompanied by Mrs. Roy Smith, president of the Kelowna Chapter.

Mrs. Hitchcock who is on a lecture tour of British Columbia is showing two new films "The Brain is the Reason" and "Pay the Piper". She recently took a special course in Alcoholism at Loma Linda University in California, which is an Adventist Medical College that has been conducting special research on alcoholism.

GOOD IDEA

Sunday school children in a Vancouver church have a birthday box in which they place pennies to remember each child on his special day. One little girl suggested that instead of a gift the money could be sent to the Unitarian Service Committee of Canada at 78 Sparks St., Ottawa to help feed hungry children in other lands. The other children liked the idea and the USC now sends "birthday presents" of powdered milk to destitute children overseas.

Winfield Memorial Hall Scene Of Pretty Bridal Shower

Fifty friends gathered in the Memorial Hall at a shower held in honor of Miss Doreen Stevenson, whose marriage to Constable Raymond Cyr of the RCMP takes place on Saturday at St. Pius Church in Kelowna.

When the very surprised bride-elect arrived she was led to a table which was centred with a decorated stand representing a few bars of music on which the notes read "Here comes the bride" and in front of this was a beautiful cake topped by a doll dressed as a bride, which was flanked by crystal candlesticks holding white tapers, pink carnations, pink and white streamers and wedding bells completed the decorative theme.

Mrs. S. Tajli welcomed the more and both she and her mother, Mrs. J. J. Stevenson, were presented with corsages. The gifts were presented to the bride-to-be in a realistic police car (Highway Patrol) complete with flashing red light and radio antenna, which was drawn in by Miss Cheryl Tajli and helping Miss Stevenson unwrap the many beautiful parcels was her mother and one of her bridesmaids, Miss Linda Wildeman.

At intervals during the evening balloons containing confetti were burst over their heads. Following the unwrapping and displaying of the gifts, delicious refreshments were served.

The hostesses were Mrs. S. Tajli, Mrs. L. Lines and Mrs. R. Holtzki. The cake was made and the doll dressed by Mrs. M. Wachnichi.

Congratulations of the district go out to Mr. and Mrs. C. Hondl on the birth of their son.

Friends and neighbors of Mrs. J. Gunn wish her a speedy recovery. She is at present patient in the Kelowna General Hospital.

The United Church choir journeyed to Vernon on Sunday where they sang in the massed choir made up of chairs from various parts of the North Okanagan during a service which opened a week long Evangelistic Preaching Mission. The speaker for the evening was Rev. Philip K. Lou' of Sumnerland.

Thirty-five members of the Hi-C group (13-15 yrs. old) of the United Church attended a skating party at the Kelowna arena. Councillor Graham Dickie was in charge.

Following the thoroughly enjoyed skating they all returned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. McCoubrey where they were served baked beans.

All members signed a get-well card which was sent to their other councillor Miss Margaret Berry who is at present in the Kelowna General Hospital.

MONUMENT TO RISING COSTS?

Big smokestack of Bulman's Products Ltd. in Vernon has for 35 years been a landmark of industry, but it may soon simply be a monument to rising costs. Company is contemplating moving elsewhere since it claims service and freight charges are making it too difficult to compete with canneries more favorably located. Bulman's employee Harry Berry's gesture could well be one of farewell. (Courier Staff Photo)

ENDERBY NOTES

Crews Begin To Repair Shuswap River Bridge

ENDERBY (Correspondent)—The Enderby bridge which crosses Shuswap River and serves the Mabel Lake Valley and North Enderby district, and which has been in dangerous condition for the past year is now being repaired by the government crew, who are renewing the rotted understructure and laying new plank flooring.

The bridge is closed from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily with the exception of Saturdays and Sundays, and which is causing considerable hardship on those who are hauling logs and polls from the Mabel Lake Valley.

The first snow in Enderby and district fell early Monday morning. Many cars from the outlying districts were covered with snow but due to the weather moderating during the day this snow turned to slush and disappeared.

'Serious' Sewage Poser Discussed In Armstrong

ARMSTRONG (Correspondent) — Major portion of Armstrong City Council's meeting this week was devoted to discussion of a possible second presentation to residents of the sewage bylaw defeated earlier in this year.

The lagoons type of sewage system, as presented at the ratepayers' meeting last November, is still the best method — both as to feasibility and to economics — in council's opinion. It was noted that the health department would be quite within its rights to insist that the situation as it exists in some areas of Armstrong be corrected — especially where the present method is a health hazard, property owners can be forced to install proper disposal units at their own expense.

The suggestion was made that the seriousness of the problem may warrant a canvass of the city by the aldermen, to acquaint individual residents with the situation. A motion was finally passed to leave the matter of a second Ald. J. E. Jamieson, who will recommend to council the most appropriate time for a vote to be taken.

CHAMBERS LETTER

A letter from the Vernon Junior Chamber of Commerce invited City Council to enter a float in their winter carnival parade. Council moved to ask local organizations to attend a meeting the fourth week in November to consider a joint effort in preparing a float to represent Armstrong.

Clerk Green reported to council that 96.43 per cent of the current taxes had been collected as at Oct. 15, and that by Oct. 24, the total collected represented 96.67 per cent.

Ald. Jamieson was appointed to represent city council on the recreation commission for the unexpired term of Gordon Danallanko, who has resigned. Council authorized the hiring of three men and two cars for Hallows' — one man will be in charge of the telephone at the police office, while two men and cars will patrol.

Permission was also granted to the fire department to hold a Hallows' bonfire in the fair grounds for district children.

MUCH DAMAGE Ald. Moore reported that considerable damage is being done to the fair grounds race track, where horses are being galloped on the ground when it is soft. He asked that some control of the situation be exercised, and council felt that anyone using the grounds should repair any damage they have caused.

Represented the local Kinsmen club, Ald. J. Nelson told council that the Kin club is considering sponsoring a horse show in June or July of next year.

They have been in touch with the Arabian Horse Breeders' Association, who would bring in 125 or more Arabian horses for the show. It was felt that if this event proved to be successful, it could become an annual show.

Ald. W. L. Smith, reporting for the city fire committee, stated they had met with the Spallumcheen Municipal Fire Committee for a thorough study of the heating system for the joint fire hall.

Council heard a letter from the Armstrong - Spallumcheen Chamber of Commerce regarding the lack of recreational facilities during the winter months, and recommending that the Hassen Hall floor be flooded for skating.

FOR A FEW Ald. Moore stated the matter had been discussed at a meeting of the Hassen Hall Committee, whose members agreed that the hall should be used for skating, but that the expenses involved would be too high to consider for the benefit of only a few residents.

Ald. Danallanko's opinion was that in the past, the hall was used only at weekends since students were too busy with homework during the week. It was noted that council had turned down this suggestion previously, and Ald. Smith felt Armstrong's population did not warrant the expense. Council moved to table the letter for presentation at the annual ratepayers' meeting.

Freight Costs For Probe

QUILCHENA (Staff) — The Okanagan Mainline Associated Boards of Trade will investigate freight rate costs in the Okanagan area.

Decision was made here Wednesday at the quarterly meeting of the OMABT representing 19 board of trade and chambers of commerce from Princeton east to Golden.

Also endorsed was a B.C. Chamber of Commerce policy letter protesting the method of price setting in the expropriation of the B.C. Electric Company by the provincial government.

Three Vernon Chamber of Commerce resolutions were also endorsed.

These are:

- A resolution supporting the B.C. Tourist Convention resolution asking that the Rogers Pass Highway be opened for traffic by next July 1.
- A resolution asking for change in the system of nomination for positions on the Canadian Chamber of Commerce executive.
- And a resolution urging improvement of the Monashee highway linking in the Okanagan and the Kootenays.

Attending from Vernon were M. J. Conroy, S. W. Oliver, Jack Dobbie and Ildal Evans.

The group also considers changing its name to the Okanagan and Mainline Associated Chambers of Commerce.

Next meeting will be held in Revelstoke sometime in January.

New $72,000 Hydro Building For Vernon

VERNON — A post and beam style office building to cost $72,000 will be constructed at Vernon to serve B.C. Hydro's administrative needs in the expanding North Okanagan power district.

J. Norman Olsen, manager of the hydro's consumer services department, stated that the contract had been awarded to a Vernon firm, Gustavus Construction Ltd. Work is expected to start almost immediately and the building is scheduled for completion by spring.

Architects for the office building project are Allen and Huggins of Vernon.

Mr. Olsen said the building will be constructed at 30th St. and 35th Ave.

Thy hydro official described the building as top quality for the interior. It will be a one-story structure having 4,000 sq. ft. of office space. A parking area is included in the general layout.

The building will be of laminated timber construction with native stone panelling and acing.

Mr. Olsen said the building will advertise the service it represents. The building interior will feature high standard (100 foot candle intensity) lighting. It will be heated and air conditioned electrically.

RCMP SPOKESMAN URGES PRECAUTIONS

VERNON (Staff) — A spokesman for the Vernon detachment RCMP today urged that extra precautions should be taken in office security during the winter season.

He said this was the time of year of lowest employment and most likelihood of attempted break-ins and theft, particularly by unemployed transients.

"Businessmen should be doubly careful now, to make it tough for the criminal," he said.

All Quiet On Fire Front

VERNON (Staff) — The Vernon Fire Department is trying for a record. It has been 32 days since the last fire in Vernon. This was a grass fire Sept. 5 on Thirty-Second St. just below the Jubilee Hospital.

"As far as I can recall it has been five years since we have had this kind of a quiet period," said Chief Fred Little.

Learning To Live Together 'Best Of Fallout Shelters'

VERNON (Staff) — A world where local prejudices are forgotten for the common good is the best kind of fallout shelter, says University of B.C. physiologist and radiation expert Dr. Douglas Copp.

Speaking to the United Nations Association Wednesday, he was the second speaker of a nation-wide debate here in two weeks to emphasize the need for a world in harmony.

Two weeks ago at the Okanagan Valley Teachers Convention Dr. Brock Chisholm, came to substantially the same conclusion.

Dr. Copp, author of more than 25 scientific articles on radiation, says he is a "hobby" of a physicist, speaker in the three-speaker program planned by the association to consider radiation hazards.

He said there was an absolutely clear moral case against further nuclear testing at this time, but added that even Russia's 50-megaton bomb would not raise the radiation to dangerous proportions.

REAP 'BLESSINGS' "But we will continue to reap the 'blessings' from the Russian series for many years to come,"

He said these "blessings" would come in the form of Cesium 137-strontium 90-carbon 14 fallout which would increase the rate of bone cancer and leukemia and cause some "permanent genetic damage".

Dr. Copp traced the history of ionizing radiation from the discovery of the X-ray by Roentgen in the early 1900's to the present.

He recalled that Mme. Curie was one of the first to die from radiation sickness, and that doctors in the early days actually recommended drinking of contaminated radium water in the mistaken belief it would benefit health.

"It was even used as a treatment for Acne."

"This is like hitting yourself on the head with a hammer," said the speaker.

He pointed out there were many sources of radiation which man has been living with for thousands of years with no apparent ill effects. "Though who knows maybe that's why we die so young."

He said up to just before the new series of Russian tests it was estimated that existing radiation would shorten the average life two or three days. "Which only becomes disturbing only in the last few days of your life."

Other sources were: occupational work in industry using fissionable materials, X-ray, "which are absolutely necessary to medical science," and such things as the fitting X-ray machines.

"There is far more radiation in one shoe fitting than additional fallout from present bomb testing, and it's absolutely necessary to condemn this unnecessary use of X-rays."

But the big danger was still the bomb testing and the possibility of nuclear war, "which would end the western civilization as we know it."

He said bomb testing up to this year may have caused one new case of bone cancer and five new cases of leukemia. This rate would increase so long as testing increased, he said.

Will fallout shelters help in the case of nuclear attack? "They are rather expensive and rather grim form of insurance," he said. "We could spend our money usefully in other ways."

Testing and nuclear war, he added, are fundamentally immoral. "But then so, in my opinion, is all warfare."

"And 20 generations hence there will still be the burden of genetic damage."

"Radiation is a real problem which we can control if we use wisdom and good sense. It's better to solve our problems in the debating halls of the United Nations than by Russian roulette or a mutual form of Kamikaze."

"The best treatment for radiation after all is still not to be exposed to it."

Honor For Legion Head

Art Woodley of Enderby, for six years North Okanagan zone commander of the Royal Canadian Legion, will be honored at a testimonial dinner in Sicamous on Nov. 23.

Mr. Woodley, now retired, will be honored by delegations from 10 branches in the North Okanagan.

The testimonial dinner will be a part of a gavel passing ceremony from Revelstoke to Sicamous. The gavel, a symbol of Legion unity, is passed between branches several times each year.

Once each year it is passed to an American Legion post in Washington State, symbol of goodwill between two nations.

QUEBEC SEPARATISM HIT

Stronger Ties Needed -City French Canadian

VERNON (Staff) — This city's best-known French Canadian, realtor Lionel Mercier, is dead against sundering ties between Quebec and the rest of Canada.

Commenting a TV program Tuesday which indicated a strong current of nationalism in the French-majority province, Mr. Mercier said: "It's strengthening of ties in the union, not dismemberment we need in this day and age."

"Mind you, people in Quebec have a point. The French Canadians have long been treated as a conquered people by people of Anglo-Saxon background. They have long been treated as a minority group."

"Some of this they have inherited," added Mr. Mercier, who moved to Vernon in 1951.

"Much of the trouble stemmed from the tyrannical rule of the Duplessis regime. The party headed by Premier Lesage offers new hope to give French Canadians an equal voice in Canada."

Referring to hostility alleged in the program to have been encountered by French Canadians, Mr. Mercier said: "I have never encountered this from groups. And only from the occasional individual."

"But then I would have encountered the same hostility if I had been of Chinese background."

North Kamloops Forgets 'Wins Not Everything'

C. W. Gaddes, member of the Kelowna Cubs Canadian football executive, to clear up the general confusion recently surrounding the status of this team, has written a letter to this newspaper, in which he says:

The Editor,
Kelowna Daily Courier,
Kelowna, B.C.
Dear Sir:

With reference to the many recent reports concerning High School football in the Okanagan Mainline area, I would like to bring to your attention a brief story of this league.

Its formation took place just over one year ago with the B.C. Lions' organization sending their representation, Mr. Denny Veitch, into the Valley to aid in the organization and development of this modern, fast growing sport. As a result the High School League was formed comprising of teams from Kamloops, North Kamloops, Vernon and Kelowna. These were the only towns which showed enthusiasm for the game and therefore teams were made up and the league formed.

The Board of Trustees of School District No. 23 did not sanction the game as part of the sports curriculum because they did not have a staff member who could coach football. Kelowna, nevertheless, was allowed to enter a team of High School students, under the supervision of a few interested citizens, in this infant stage league.

This year the staff coach situation remained unchanged in Kelowna. In the best interests of football and the Kelowna team, the same group of directors agreed to carry on running the team rather than let football die in Kelowna, and possibly the league. It has been intimated by the School Board that next year a staff member will be hired to handle the coaching of the football team. However, the popularity of the game appears to be on the increase and has now passed to Penticton where a team has been formed and entered in the league.

The whole purpose of football in the schools of the Okanagan-Mainline area (and elsewhere in fact) is to develop sportsmanship amongst the participants and also to develop the players physically, mentally and morally. There are very few games today that take all of these into account as does football.

In recent weeks, I think this main purpose has been sadly overlooked by one of the schools of the league. Certain accusations of ineligible players participating on the Kelowna team were correct and following a meeting of the League, October 13, 1961, instructions were given to Kelowna and the necessary amendments were made.

The players in question, five to be exact, were enrolled under the Correspondence Division of the Department of Education and this type of schooling was ruled out by the league.

The Kelowna team prepared a new roster of players, acknowledged by the school principal as to eligibility and submitted it to the league prior to the game held Saturday last in North Kamloops. A copy of this roster was also handed to the officials of the North Kamloops team prior to game time and they agreed and allowed their team to play, Kelowna won the game 13-6.

Today we are informed that our friends in North Kamloops are protesting this game once again claiming ineligibility. Their reasons for the new claims are that Kelowna's team comprises of players not only from the Senior High but also the Junior High, one from Rutland High and two each from Immaculate High and Dr. Knox High, all part of the Kelowna School District No. 23.

It would appear to me that the powers that be in North Kamloops not only have forgotten the purpose of the game but they are setting a very poor example for the students and members of their team to follow. Winning is not everything!

Trusting this will help clarify the situation for your subscribers, I remain,

Yours very truly,
C. W. GADDES,
(Member of Kelowna Cubs Canadian Football Association Executive.)

Western Pro Soccer Loop To Be Discussed Saturday

EDMONTON (CP) — Representatives of the Eastern Canadian Professional Soccer League and soccer officials from Edmonton, Calgary and Vancouver will meet here Saturday to discuss formation of a western pro soccer loop. The eastern league has been operating professionally for a year in Hamilton, Toronto and Montreal, importing almost all its players from England, Europe and South America to ensure a high calibre of play. The western cities are expected to propose a western league with two teams in Vancouver, one each in Calgary and Edmonton, and possibly an interlocking schedule with the EPSSL.

Hugh Baker of Edmonton first vice-president of the Canadian Soccer Association, said Wednesday contracts have been made with several European players interested in playing in Western Canada. He said Vancouver probably could field at least one team of good calibre Canadian pros. He described the coast city as a "hotbed of soccer."

Baker said fan reaction to professional soccer in Western Canada appeared to be good.

ANDY'S NO MOMMA'S BOY . . .

But Mom Bathgate Said, "Stay With Hockey Son"

No one can accuse Andy Bathgate of being a mommy's boy, but it's a well-known fact around the National Hockey League that his mother talked him into staying with the game. It was sound advice.

The fifty New York Ranger right-winger wanted to quit hockey eight years ago when Rangers sold him to Cleveland of the American Hockey League. That's when his mother got into the picture. "Rangers had promised to send me to Vancouver if I didn't make it but they shipped me to Cleveland instead," Bathgate recalls. "I called my mother and told her and she said that maybe it was a turning point in my career and that I should stick it out. . . . I scored 40 goals, the highest any Ranger since the club was formed back in 1926. He also added 48 assists for an 88-point

EX-CANADIENS MAKE IT PAY

Habs Could Be Tougher With Some Old Discards

Montreal Canadiens are no scoring slouches as their 4.4 goals average for five games indicates.

But consider how much tougher the Habs would be if they could lay claim to all the goals being scored in the National Hockey League this season by some of their former possessions.

Bob Turner, one of the league's most versatile players who now is with Chicago Black Hawks, got the 25th Wednesday night with the 1961-62 season only two weeks old.

It was Turner's second goal in seven games with the Black Hawks — matching his entire output during 114 games with Canadiens in 1959-60 and 1960-61 — and provided his team mates a 1-1 tie with the Rangers at New York.

By virtue of the tie, Rangers moved back into first place — one point ahead of the idle Canadiens. The Blueshirts have 10 points in nine games while the Canadiens, unbeaten in five starts, have nine points.

Montreal gets a chance tonight to gain sole possession of the leadership when it plays host to the Black Hawks. Detroit Red Wings will be in Boston for a game against the lowly Bruins in another game tonight.

Turner's goal came at the 57-second mark of the second period and sent the Black Hawks into a 1-0 lead. Ken Schinkel tied it 1-1 with his first goal of the season at 10:37 of the same period.

Turner scored only two seconds after a penalty to teammate Ab McDonald had expired. But McDonald had not left the penalty box, so the Black Hawks were actually short-handed.

He picked up a loose puck at the New York blue line, moved in a couple of steps and then started a 30-foot slap shot besting behind Ranger goalie Marcel Paille. Defenceman Dollard St. Laurent, another former Canadian, was credited with an assist.

Schinkel took a pass from defenceman Harry Howell for the tying goal — a rising 20-footer that eluded Chicago goalie Glenn Hall.

Each team had numerous scoring chances after that but were thwarted by fine goaltending. Paille, replacing injured Lorne (Gump) Worsley for the second straight game, wound up with 25 saves while Hall had 29.

'Turk Was Eligible—' McKinstry

"As far as we are concerned, Wendell Turk was eligible," is Hotspurs' coach Bob McKinstry's answer to a recent charge that the Kelowna entry in the Okanagan Valley Senior Soccer League used an ineligible player in a recent game against the Penticton Imperials.

Wendell Turk was signed in front of witnesses, McKinstry said, but the registration forms apparently got lost. Turk scored in Sunday's game midway through the second half to give Kelowna a 2-1 edge on the Penticton group.

McKinstry said he isn't interested in winning if he has to do it with ineligible players. The Spurs have a 26-point lead in this half of this year's action, which is a large spread.

"And we have no thought of losing in the upcoming Kamloops game," said McKinstry.

Turk will play again, and coach McKinstry said he may play himself. McKinstry said he believes that this whole complaint would never have been registered with the league if Turk had not scored the winning goal. The game was played Thanksgiving weekend.

Royalites' Opener Saturday Against Oroville, Wash.

Kelowna's rebuilt B.C. Champion Senior 'B' Royalites are ready to put their show on the road after playing their annual waiting game.

In the process of formation, says coach Bill Dean, it usually looks bad for a while, then suddenly, "you've got yourself a team." The Royalites have finally jelled as a club, using six of last year's players and a handful of new participants.

They got their first taste of action Saturday against Oroville, Washington, reportedly a very strong team. The Senior 'B' Men's loop this season includes Kelowna, Penticton and Oroville.

Kamloops and Vernon are all but defunct, according to the latest reports.

The annual waiting game period, while players debate with themselves whether to play or not, and go through a non-practicing steady interlude, is not over yet, since the season is young.

The club won't be a look-alike replica of the Royalites of last season, but their will be a number of similarities, enough to make the Royalites a favorite in Saturday's game against the talented Oroville club.

Meikle Teddy Bears coach Bob Hall reports, having written to three coast clubs, in Vancouver, Portland and Victoria, and to Trail attempting to arrange games.

There is no valley Senior 'B' Women's loop, and Penticton refuses categorically to play the Kelowna club. If they register as a Senior 'B' club, however, they will have to play the Teddies.

The Canadian Champion Teddies got their first taste of action Monday against the B.C. Girls' High School champions last year, Salmon Arm High, in the new high school gymnasium there.

"This will be our best competition in the valley," said Hall.

Gord Fashoway Digs In For 489-99th Goals

Coach Hal Laycoe of Portland Buckaroos figures his club to be different this season — sometimes defensively weak, but "generally hot as a scoring unit."

Wednesday, defending champion Bucks of the Western Hockey League were hot. And it was left winger Gord Fashoway, 35, who did most of the digging.

Fash scored his 498th and 499th WHL goals as Buckaroos downed San Francisco Seals 3-1. In a second game Dennis Riggins scored the first shutout of the young season when his Flyers blanked Los Angeles Blades 5-0 in Edmonton.

The victory was Edmonton's fourth against no losses. Portland heads the league's Southern Division with five wins and a loss.

Fashoway, playing his 14th WHL season, put Bucks ahead to stay at the end of the first period, following up a goal by Arnie Schmutz who scored after a power play. Bob Solinger had given the Seals a brief 1-0 lead two minutes after the game started.

The second period was scoreless, and Fashoway's third-period slap shot rounded out the Portland victory.

Laycoe had solid help Wednesday in goaltender Bruce Gamble who turned aside 40 shots, compared with Bev Bentley's 26.

Riggins, meanwhile handled 31 shots in the Edmonton victory as Marcel Pelletier blocked 44 for Blades.

The first period in that game was scoreless before Flyers ran up a 3-0 lead in the second.

Roger DeJordy handled two goals in the Flyers' offensive splurge and singles went to Len Lande, Don Chiz and Doug Messier.

Pat Fletcher of Montreal and Peter Olynk of Edmonton were named vice-presidents and Len Wheatley of Montreal honorary president for a second term.

George Knudson of Oakdale, Ont., and Jack Kay of Montreal will represent Canada in the Mexican Open beginning Nov. 9 in Mexico City.

Cuba's Castro On The Mound; Who Strikes?

BALTIMORE (AP) — Joe Cambria, a baseball scout who has signed more than 500 youngsters to professional contracts, wishes he had latched on to just one more. If he had, Cambria may have changed the international lineup.

Fidel Castro, a right-handed pitcher who since has been accused of left-handed political leanings, was rejected by Cambria in the mid-1950s.

"Castro had a good curve ball, but not much of a fast ball," Cambria told Bill Tanton of the Baltimore Evening Sun in an interview at Mercy Hospital, where the 71-year-old scout for Minnesota Twins underwent a physical checkup.

Cambria said the Cuban prime minister had ambitions to be a major league player.

SPEED LESS IMPORTANT

"I think now I probably should have signed him," Joe said. "Back in those days we used to feel a pitcher had to be able to throw hard to be worth signing. But with the development of the slider and more breaking stuff, pitchers nowadays can sometimes get by without a lot of speed."

But Cambria has signed lots of other well-known players, both from Cuba and the United States.

Second Season Work Party Planned Sunday

The second work party of the year for Black Mountain gets underway this coming Sunday, when tractors will be in action preparing the slopes with mowers and bulldozers in expectation of a busy season.

Light snow during last week's well attended work party at the ski bowl, spurred skiers on in the work of clearing the hills and preparing the chalet.

Post and tow lines will be moved on Sunday to allow greater skiing area at the base of the Junior Hill, and freedom from crowding at the main tow. This weekend's party of workers will begin at 10:30 Sunday morning.

Yon Cassius - Hungry Look For Patterson

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Unbeaten Cassius Clay, a heavyweight boxer, says he's ready for world champion Floyd Patterson any time, hopes to do battle with former champ Ingemar Johansson and wants no part of Sonny Liston.

Clay, 19, from Louisville, Ky., was here Wednesday to visit fellow Olympic champions Wilma Rudolph and Ralph Boston, track stars at Tennessee State University.

In an interview he managed to cover these subjects:

Liston — "One of his hands is bigger than both of mine. Man, he'd break your arm if he punched you on the elbow. No sir, I don't want any part of him."

Patterson — "If they matched me against Patterson in the next five months, there'd be as many people betting on me as on him. Floyd's overrated. He's not fighting the top contenders."

Johansson — "You know, we offered him $100,000 to fight me and he cabled back that Clay wouldn't draw three people and didn't have the ability to get into the ring with him. I figured if I'm nothing, why doesn't he come over and knock me out and pick up the $100,000."

With nine professional victories, six by knockout, Clay next meets Willie Hesmanoff Dec. 13 in Louisville, Ky.

Old Style YEAST

The original strain

Many years ago, we carefully cultivated a yeast with the subtly different quality called for in our recipe — the one strain that would achieve a full mature flavour... a mellow taste... and sparkling golden brilliance. We use that very yeast strain today to ferment Old Style slowly, gently. The many people who prefer Old Style justify our faith in this traditional manner of brewing our beer.

CHICKEN AND CURRY ON PARSLED RICE

1 can condensed cream of chicken soup
¼ cup milk
1-2 teaspoons curry powder
1 cup cooked chicken, sliced or diced
¼ cup sliced stuffed olives
Cooked fluffy DELTA long-grain rice
Chopped parsley

Blend soup and milk in top of double-boiler. Add curry powder as desired, cooked chicken and heat thoroughly. Stir in sliced olives and serve on a bed of hot, fluffy cooked Delta rice mixed with chopped parsley. Wonderful!

WORLD BRIEFS

WALRUS DIES OF COLD
NEW YORK (AP)—One of the New York Aquarium's three baby walrus is dead—the victim of a bad cold. The 300-pound, six-month-old Alaskan walrus, named Aivok, succumbed to bronchitis in the aquarium yesterday. An oxygen tank and antibiotics were used in a futile attempt to save his life. 78

TAX CONCESSION
ROSEMERE, Que. (CP)—Council of this town just north of Montreal decided that people who build fall-out shelters will not have the improvements added to their property tax assessment. The town will also check federal and provincial authorities as to what grants and equipment may be provided. 75

LISTS COLOMBO AID
LONDON (Reuters)—Asian nations have received more than $186,000,000 in technical aid since the introduction 10 years ago of the Colombo plan for technical co-operation. It was reported today. During the decade 3,155 experts and consultants visited countries of south and southeast Asia to undertake a wide variety of technical tasks, the Colombo council report said. 74

CLAIMS 111 YEARS
BUCHANAN, Sask. (CP)—Wasyf Fofonoff says he's 111 years old this year. He bases his estimate on his wife's grave marker, which says she was born in 1861 and died in 1925. Mr. Fofonoff said he was 11 years older than his wife, but his exact birth date in Russia was never recorded. 84

74	1085	Q5	10983
Q663	Q663	K	9763
K382	K382	Q1064	Q1064

The bidding:

South	West	North	East
1♠	Pass	1NT	Pass
3♦	Pass	4♦	Pass
5♦

Opening lead—king of hearts. The magician's stock in trade is that the hand is quicker than the eye. South took a leaf from this in today's hand and gave such a smooth performance that he succeeded in making a contract which could have been defeated.

West led a heart and declarer won with the ace. South said that he had to avoid a heart loser if he was to make the hand, but there being no ready entry to dummy to take a discard on the king of clubs, he cashed the A-K of spades to prepare a way of reaching dummy.

After the queen fell on the second spade, South did not make the mistake of cashing the ace of clubs before reading a spade to ruff in dummy. If he had done this, he would have announced openly that the ace was a singleton, and West might have trumped the next spade lead with the ace and cashed the queen of hearts to bring about South's downfall.

Instead, South led the two of spades, and West, seeing no reason to ruff, discarded a heart. Declarer trumped, played a club to the ace, and then led the six of spades.

Again West did not ruff—he discarded a club. He could not bring himself to play the ace of trump on a card which his partner obviously could beat.

It was a costly error. Declarer trumped in dummy, cashed the king of clubs, and discarded his heart loser on it.

The rest was easy. South ruffed a heart, led the jack of spades, and trumped it in dummy. All he lost was two diamond tricks.

Of course, West could have beaten the hand if he had ruffed either low spade lead with the ace. He could have done this on the basis that the only chance of defeating the contract lay in East's having the king of diamonds.

But this comment is not meant to take away the praise due South for making his intentions behind a series of plays so naturally designed that it never occurred to West to ruff high.

YOUR HOROSCOPE

FOR TOMORROW
 Good planetary influences now encourage all matters requiring vigor and energetic enterprise. This is a time to put over new ideas, programs dealing with future security. Put them over diplomatically, however. Don't be too aggressive.

FOR THE BIRTHDAY
 If tomorrow is your birthday, your horoscope indicates possible changes in your home and/or business affairs in the immediate future. Properly adaptable, however, you can profit by such changes and turn them to your advantage—within the next two weeks.

And, if additional responsibilities are involved, handle them well. A spirit of ingenuity and co-operation with the right sources could net fine results.

Most worthwhile endeavors will be under excellent stimuli during November, December and the first six months of 1962, with special benefits presaged for those in the medical and legal fields. But there's much good in store for all Scorpio natives—if they work for it. Travel and, for the single, romance, are pleasant prospects in December, June and August. A child born on this day will be competent, generous and keenly analytical.

Soviet Gets New Chance For Intrigue In Congo

LEOPOLDVILLE (AP)—The Russians have been given another chance in the Congo. Patrice Lumumba, the slain Congolese leader of last year's independence disaster, gave them their first chance. He invited them to help him crush all resistance to his high-handed rule.

The Russians responded enthusiastically. They sent in 10 Ilyushin planes to ferry his troops around the country. They sent 100 trucks to move the ammunition and a horde of propagandists disguised as technicians.

Lumumba was delighted. Two trucks stood in front of his house for a day or two. A special Ilyushin stood available for his use for months. The Russians pumped money into the country to create confusion and doubt. But they overdid it.

Col. Joseph Mobutu, then a 29-year-old army officer, climbed on a table in a downtown hotel and announced he had given the Russian, Czech and Polish embassies 48 hours to close down and evacuate their personnel. They went out in the Ilyushins, leaving the stand the events in The Congo, Lumumba is accepted as the only dimly, Lumumba is a father of The Congo Republic and an authentic martyr to the cause of Negro progress. This belief is carefully nurtured by left-wing organizations.

6,500 Eligible To Vote Today In Peace River

PEACE RIVER, Alta. (CP)—About 6,500 persons are eligible to vote today in the northern constituency of Peace River to decide which of three candidates will represent the mixed farming area in the Alberta legislature.

The candidates are J. W. Freeland, Liberal; E. F. Montgomery, Social Credit; and H. C. Sisson, Progressive Conservative.

The winner will fill a vacancy created by the recent death of Floyd Gilliland, Social Credit member since 1944.

Mr. Gilliland, a Berwyn, Alta. farmer, was re-elected in 1948, 1952, 1955, and 1959.

Mr. Montgomery, 46, also is a farmer, born and educated in the Peace River district and now living in Brownvale.

HOPES FOR UPSET

Mr. Sisson, who polled 1,190 votes in 1959 against Mr. Gilliland's 2,864, is a Peace River lawyer. He was born in Moose Jaw 40 years ago.

Trying for a Liberal upset is Wilbur Freeland, 45, born in the area, educated at the University of Alberta and now a lawyer. He has served as Peace River town solicitor and town councillor. He was defeated by Mr. Gilliland in 1955.

Liberal candidate James Mann polled 650 votes in 1959. All three candidates stuck close to general party policies. Mr. Freeland and Mr. Sisson said a strong opposition is needed in the legislature.

Polls will open at 9 a.m. and close at 8 p.m. MST.

BEFORE BIANCA C SANK

Burning hull of the former queen of the seas, the Italian liner Bianca C, lies off St. George's Grenada, in the British West Indies, prior to sinking Tuesday. More than 800 people were rescued from the liner and only two deaths resulted in the fire and explosions which killed the vessel.

Unemployed Can Be Ally Of Union Says Railman

VANCOUVER (CP)—Both man can become a strong ally of organized labor. "He knows how tough it is to the labor movement if trade exist without work. He's sufficiency hope to retain hard-earned economic and legislative standards of family life which the B.C. Federation of deny his children legitimate opportunities."

"In the hungry '30s, we recognized the need to bring them into our field. Today we must be ready to help him financially here Tuesday, "the unemployed Many unemployed men were the trade union members of yesterday and may well be trade union members tomorrow."

Pat O'Neal, secretary-treasurer of the Federation of Labor who holds the same position with the B.C. Federation of Unemployed, said that while financing unemployed organizations are a heavy burden on trade unions, "more than money is needed to solve their problems."

NEEDS FULL BACKING

"Unless all unions actively become involved in the fight all our efforts will be wasted. We need both money and physical help. The cost will mount each year and all unions will have to recognize this need."

Almost the entire second day of the four-day convention was devoted to employment problems.

Donald MacDonald, secretary-treasurer of the Canadian Labor Congress, said there has been a drop in the net numerical numbers of organized workers in Canada during the last year.

The drop might not be significant in statistics, but it is significant "that there has been any decline at all when we have within labor the greatest resources and manpower even in our history," he added.

It is a prime task of trade unions to take the organized message to non-union workers. Each worker outside a union constitutes a threat against labor.

APPROVES 12-POINT PLAN

Repressive legislation allowed to become law, such as bills 42 and 43 in B.C., under these conditions, he said. Bill 42 prohibits use of union funds for political purposes and Bill 43 restricts secondary picketing. Both are being challenged in the courts as unconstitutional.

Great Salt Lake, in northern Utah, has an average depth of only about 12 feet.

Murder Stays Unaffected By Change In Penalty Law

LONDON (CP)—A slim, red-covered book entitled Murder, issued today by the home office, indicates that the 1957 law that all but did away with capital punishment has had little or no effect on the murder rate in Britain.

The Homicide Act passed four years ago confined the death penalty to certain types of murder, including that committed in the course of theft, in resisting or escaping from arrest or by shooting or by causing explosions. Those who kill for a second time or kill a policeman or prison officer also are liable to the death penalty.

Murder, compiled for Home Secretary R. A. Butler, shows that the increase in the number of murders in recent years has been small compared with the general increase in crime.

However, since it is impossible to say how many people convicted of manslaughter under the "diminished responsibility" clause of the Homicide Act would have been found guilty of murder before the act, these cases are listed as murders. The change in population also makes accurate comparison difficult.

The 166 murders during 1960 is high, the report says, but not unprecedented and cannot be taken as an indication of any general continuing increase in the murder rate.

POPULATION CLIMBS

The annual averages for the three decades 1931-40, 1941-50 and 1951-60 were 13, 152 and 149, respectively. The population increased about 15 per cent from 1931 to 1960.

The annual average for 1,000,000 of population during 1951-60 was 3.3. The average for 1960 was 3.7.

Some other facts in the report: Less than 15 per cent of all murders are of the types now defined as capital murders. This proportion has not changed since passage of the act.

Nearly one-third of all victims are killed by persons who subsequently commit suicide.

The average number of murders for financial gain rose to 12 a year from six during the year before the Homicide Act, despite the fact murder in the course of furtherance of theft is capital murder.
